President's Thoughts ...

We have made it almost half the year so far and things are looking good. Covid has seemed to slow down and things are starting to return to normal. Last month was our first outdoor meeting of the year and we had a great turnout. We certainly apologize for not getting the casting set up like normal, but we are going to try and host both of them at the next meeting.

The warmer weather appears to finally be here to stay so that means it is time to get out and put your flies to the test. With that being said, we have a group of guys and gals getting ready to go to Canada for some incredible smallmouth bass fishing along with a chance at a killer northern pike or muskie as well. Also, for many of you, the Ohio Power trip is coming up as well. Lots of fun camping, kayaking and fishing for pie plate sized bluegill. Be it Canada, Ohio Power, a local river, one of the private trout clubs or your friend's farm pond, just make sure to get out there, create some fun and put a bend in that fly rod.

Tightlines,

Phillip Ritter
MVFF 2022 President

Spam Issues

A few members have recently received emails and in one case a text message seemingly sent by Phil Ritter. The sender asked the recipient to email Phil right away or in one case to purchase gift cards and send the card information to him. Phil did not send anything of this nature. These are common scams and we all need to be aware that we may be a victim at some time. No one from the club is going to ask you to purchase gift cards.

If you have a concern about the legitimacy of an email or text do not respond to that message directly. And never click on a link if you have any question of the legitimacy of its sender. If you want to contact that member and you do not have that member in your address book you can get contact information for many members by logging into the website and going to the Members or Club Contacts page. The Club Contacts page is now private (requires a login) and is under the Member Area menu.

Automated spiders/bots crawl the web and pick up such contact information. Once it is out there it will remain on the web. We have always limited personal information to email addresses and phone numbers and then only with the member's permission. This information may be in Tightlines and not just web pages.

In almost all cases these are little more than annoyances and exercising some caution and judgment in all of your online activity will serve you well.

Also, please be aware that the Club Contacts page is now private – login is required. Please register on the site to access the private pages. 70% of members have registered so far.

Membership Update

There are still some members who have not renewed their membership for 2022. Dues should have been paid by the end of February.

If you had not renewed you were sent an email in early May encouraging you to keep your membership active. Those members who had not paid May by 15th have been removed from the roster and email list. Those unpaid members who had registered accounts on the website have had their website accounts expired.

You can still renew! As always, the easiest way is to pay online at <https://mvff.us>.

Also, please remember that if you have trouble making your payment we have a benevolence fund to cover the cost. A member of our Board can help you discreetly access these funds.

If you have any questions or concerns please let me know.

Notes June 2022

Last week I was excited to receive an email from Sybil Hunter, submission editor of the Michigan Fly Fishing Club newsletter The Evening Hatch. She had found our Tightlines through the Fly Fishers International ClubWire News Service. If there ever was a question of how far our efforts at connecting and communicating with the broader community of fly fishers goes, here it is. Ms. Hunter was amazed to learn that we had an active, working library! Passing emails back and forth I learned that MFFC was considering closing their library; not if we can help it. She was encouraged by our monthly submission to Tightlines, that we had surveyed our members, worked at having books and videos available through the mail, set up displays at meetings, and had seasonal offerings from fly tying in the winter months to destination literature in the summer. If you are a regular fisher in Michigan or are an interested beginner...we will connect you to Ms. Hunter and see that you have the information necessary to succeed in your trip to Michigan.

This also brought to mind that there is an established,

Hey Ladies --- Participation Is The Key To Learning!

On May 22 I attended a workshop called Minnows That Matter sponsored by Ohio Women On The Fly (OWOTF) and presented by two board members of Native Fish Coalition, Ohio Chapter (NFC). As the pictures show, it was hands-on, fun, and informative. Those nets are called seines which are held by two people. Then, one or two people kick around the rocks and dirt to disturb the small fish as the current sweeps them into the seine. We maintained two groups doing this for about two hours and captured twelve species! Cam and Paul have a lot of technical knowledge which they put to use explaining the subtle variances between some of the minnows. But for us, we only need to take the major features into consideration when we imitate them in our tying. The rainbow darter was my favorite, but the silver shiner minnow varieties are more common. The location for these pictures was on Rocky Fork Creek in Friendship Park, Gahanna (Columbus).

My main message here, is that we need to take advantage of opportunities to fish and learn about fishing. Founded in 2019 by Jessica Suvic-Tran and Katie Johnstone (she works and guides with Mad River Outfitters), OWOTF was created to bring women in Ohio's fly-fishing community together and to inspire more women to get on the water. Regular meetups, workshops, trips, fly tying, education, networking, and volunteer opportunities are offered through their website at ohiowomenonthefly.com and on social media. Although OWOTF is based in Columbus, some activities are offered near Cincinnati and Cleveland or online. Some are collaborations with FFI Women Connect, or are opportunities to support related organizations such as Casting For Recovery, TU Mad River Chapter, Mayfly Project, ... We can carpool to save gas!

"To Dame Juliana Berners, who in 1496 wrote the first book ever to be published on fly fishing. Her courage and tenacity over five hundred years ago has inspired me to write this book and encourage more women to go fly fishing."

~~NFC is a conservation non-profit dedicated to protecting, preserving and restoring wild native fish through stewardship of the fish and their habitats. Their focus is primarily, but not limited to, gamefish. Gamefish are often the species that are most threatened, and what is good for these native 'indicator species' is good for all native fish. NFC also collaborates with other conservation groups, agencies, fishing groups and anglers.

June Fly of the Month

Olive Czech Nymph

Instructions by Bill "Woody" Woodward
Photography by Bob Cain

Recipe

Hook..... Swimming Nymph, size 8 – 12
Thread..... Olive 6/0 or 8/0
Shellback..... Scud backing, clear or equivalent
First Rib..... Fine silver wire or oval tinsel
Second Rib.... Fine monofilament such as 6X or 7X tippet
Underbody.... Lead wire .15
Body..... Olive sparkle dubbing
Hot Spot..... Orange or pink dubbing
Thorax..... Hare's ear dubbing, spiky
Head..... Thread

1. Tie in the thread behind the hook eye and wrap it back to halfway down the hook bend making a good thread base. Let the thread hang.
2. By one end, tie in a 4" - 5" piece of monofilament, a 4" piece of scud backing, and then a 4"-5" piece of silver wire at the middle of the hook bend with their lengths extending out over the hook bend. Wrap thread back over their butt ends to a point about 1/2 way down the bend of the hook. Trim off any excess butts.
3. Now take a 5"-6" piece of lead wire and, starting over the hook barb, make 30-35 touching wraps forward toward the hook eye. When finished, break off the excess lead. Cover the lead with thread wraps and move the thread back to the middle of the hook bend. Let the thread hang.
4. Form a dubbing loop and fill it with olive dubbing, twist the loop, then wrap it in touching wraps up the hook shank over the lead wire covering the rear 2/3rds of the hook shank forming an abdomen. Tie off the dubbing loop and remove any excess. Let the thread hang.
5. Take the silver wire and wrap it forward over the abdomen in counterclockwise evenly spaced wraps as a rib. Tie it off in front of the abdomen and remove any excess wire. Let the thread hang.
6. Now dub the thread with orange dubbing and, starting tight against the front of the abdomen, make 2-3 tight wraps to create a "hot spot" (think egg sac), then tie it off and remove any excess dubbing. Let the thread hang.

7. Dub the thread with hare's ear dubbing and, starting tight against the "hot spot", wrap a spiky thorax forward to slightly behind the hook eye. Let the thread hang.
8. Grasp the scud backing and pull it forward over the abdomen, "hot spot", and thorax and tie it off directly behind the hook eye. Remove any excess backing. Be sure to keep the backing on top of the hook shank and to keep it under tension until it is tied off.
9. Now grasp the monofilament rib and wrap it forward clockwise in evenly spaced turns over the entire body and tie it off behind the hook eye. Remove any excess monofilament.
10. Form a small thread head, whip finish, and cut the thread. Apply head cement if desired.
11. Take a bodkin, dubbing brush, or other suitable tool and brush the thorax to create legs.

NOTE: If desired, the shellback can be tinted with permanent markers. The first (wire) rib can be omitted, at the discretion of the tier. However, the second (monofilament) rib is essential as it holds everything together. You can form the abdomen without a dubbing loop, but using it adds to the durability of the fly.

Five Rivers MetroParks Volunteering

It seems that everywhere we look these days, people are hurting for staff, volunteers, product – you name it – everything seems to be in short supply, except the demand.

The same seems to be true for public demand for our programs here at Five Rivers MetroParks . . . we are shorthanded on volunteers to help out. That is why I turned to my friends at MVFF. But the times have changed and you can no longer say, “I’m happy to help, I’ll just show up the morning of your program.” You do have to sign up as an official volunteer – and that is simply to protect everyone involved – YOU, the participant and FRMP. If anything happens, you are covered by having gone through the process of being onboarded as an official volunteer and not someone just walking in off the street so-to-speak.

It is fairly easy process. Most folks are “official” in a matter of a day or two.

So if you have an interest in volunteering at Five Rivers MetroParks at some point (I will have some fly fishing volunteer needs in the near future) please consider signing up now so that when volunteers are needed for a specific activity we can get in touch with you. Most, if not all, of the volunteer sign-up is online at <https://www.metroparks.org/make-a-difference/volunteer/>. You may also directly contact Yvonne Dunphe, MetroParks Volunteer Coordinator, who can help you with the sign up process at Yvonne.dunphe@metroparks.org (please mention fly fishing volunteer in the Subject line).

Thanks.

MVFF member and Outdoor Recreation Program Specialist with Five Rivers MetroParks

Creel Submission

Have you tried the Creel Submission page (<https://mvff.us/species-caught/>)? It is in the Member Area menu. We developed this page for members to easily submit their catch info in a way that would make it easy to gather and tabulate the information and report to members periodically.

So give it a try. Just submit information on your catches for each day of fishing. You will be prompted to make a new entry upon submission which will take you to a new blank form – you would do this if you had multiple species that day (a separate submission is to be made for each species).

By making a creel submission you are giving permission to share information with fellow club members. (Email addresses will not be shared or published in Tightlines.)

Casting Competition News!

Test out your casting skills by taking part in our casting competition. The only thing required to participate in the casting events is for you to show up. You don't even have to own a fly rod. There is no age requirement or limit, no height requirement, and no previous casting experience is needed. Regardless of skill level, EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

CASTING COMPETITION CUT-OFF TIME

Casting competition will only be from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. No casting will be allowed after 7:00 p.m. The cut-off time will help ensure we are not holding up the meeting with scoring, etc., and give us somewhat of a chance to grab some dinner. So come on over and cast early!

NOTE: If no one is casting, at the discretion of the judges, we might close as early as 6:30 p.m.

June Casting Competition – this month we will be doing both the Dry Fly and Nymph competition.

Dry Fly: A maximum of 3 false casts will be allowed per target.
We will have you start with the fly in target 1 or in your hand. (Judge's decision on meeting night.)

Nymph: You will start with the fly in target #2.
You will pick up the fly and have unlimited false casts to target #1.
You will then only be allowed 1 (one) false cast to each remaining target.

Casting Competition Divisions are as follows:

First Flight: Those that have never won a casting event and all new casters.

Seniors: Casters who have previously won a First Flight casting event or former winners of the First Flight casting division.

Masters: Former winners of the Seniors casting division.

Competition Guidelines:

Everyone will cast to the same five rings, using the club rod.

One person from each division will be determined the winner of that night's competition. Based on your cumulative scores of all the events, an overall winner will be determined for each division and presented a traveling trophy in December.

Scoring: (Judges will make the final ruling on all scores; there will be no ties for any event.)

All casters will start with 100 points.

- (-0) Those skillful enough to place the fly inside the gold ring will not lose any points.
- (-1) Any fly that lands inside the black ring will result in the deduction of 1 point.
- (-2) If the fly lands outside all the rings, 2 points will be deducted.

The person in each division with the highest score will win the event for their division.

At the end of the outdoor season, overall winners of each division will be determined by averaging scores of all events entered. Whoever has the highest score total in their division will be awarded a trophy at the December awards banquet. Even if you don't win an event, you could still be the overall winner of your division (it's happened before!). So come on over and cast.

Remember - although we do keep score and everyone would like to win, the real point of doing this (other than to just have a good time) is to improve our casting abilities.

Good Luck!

Bob Zitney

Also, we need someone to step up and volunteer to take over the casting competition. Please contact me at rzitney@aol.com. Thanks.

Ken Davy has once again put together a list of fishing spots and a schedule from March - October. Ken has also included info on the fishing potential of these waters and suggested flies. There are links to a map for each location.

Lots of fishing spots and links to maps here. Go on the scheduled date and you can meet up with fellow members. Or just check out some of these places when you choose. We're hoping to get even better turnout this year.

They start at 4:30 p.m. If you have specific questions about events contact Ken at tiggr75@gmail.com.
